'I was on the edge of my seat' - Sreya, age 10

'Amazing, interesting and surprising' - Ishaq, age 9

'I learned about Tudor life' - Isobel, age 10

Join Zula and Milo on a thrilling adventure as they find themselves unexpectedly stuck in the dangerous world of Tudor London on the trail of a mysterious silk thief. This book is perfect for engaging and entertaining children aged 7 and up, who enjoy WONDERSCAPE by Jennifer Belle and the LIZZIE AND BELLE MYSTERIES series.

When Zula's aunt's antique bathtub turns out to be a Time Machine, she and her best friend Milo find themselves trapped 400 years in the past. Excited at the chance to show her history teacher there are Black people in Britain's past, she pulls Milo deeper and deeper into the dangerous world of Tudor London. History is about to get real in ways Zula never imagined.

Will Zula prove her teacher wrong and get herself and Milo safely back to their own time?

About the Author

Claire works in marketing by day and writes children's books in the gaps between working, parenting and exercising in aerial hoops. She lives in East London with her son, partner and an increasingly large collection of books. Having only begun to embrace her dual British and Nigerian heritage as an adult, she is passionate about stories that hero Black and Mixed heritage characters.

The next book in the Time Tub Travellers series will be launching in Spring 2025
